In This Instance, However, It Is a Case of Divorce in Chan-divorce court as the most serious and important of his duties, and when cases are brought before him his first effort is to effect a reconciliation or a reunion of the parties concerned. If this is impossible the chancellor next weighs the evidence carefully and where he thinks a dissolution is attempted by agreement or through col-lusion the bill, whether it be filed by wife or husband, is quickly dismissed. The chancellor says that in every divorce suit there are three parties— the plaintiff, the defendant and the state or the absent defendant—and Chancellor Garvin takes the place of the absent one—a witness that might without fear or favor come into the lives and effect a reconciliation. In every instance where Chancellor Garvin seeks instance where Chancellor Garvin seeks a chance to bring about the reunien of man and wife, especially where the lives of littles one is involved, he makes every effort to do so. He believes the dismissal of a divorce suit with a promise of a return of affections between man and wife is the end of a perfect day.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

'Pape's Diapepsin' relieves stomach distress in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the dam-age—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch hases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to help neu-traitze acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indiges-tion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dys-pepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened and they at their favorite foods without fear.

BOYS BOUND OVER TO NAVY

Unique Decision by Squire W. M. Parks, Who Heard Cases on Front Porch.

Just as the sun was sinking behind Raccoon mountain Tuesday afternoon, reflecting her golden glories out over the world, Squire W. M. Parks sat on the front porch of his beautiful little home in East Chattanooga and within the confines of his own magisterial district and heard three young men, on the very threshold of manhood, tell the pery threshold of manhood, tell how they had deliberately robbed a freight car of $75 worth of tobacco. Just the result of a hobo trip and the wandering away from their own fire-sides, where every influence for good is thrown about the youth of the country. The boys' names were Will Teague, Will Denton and Martin Mc-Alister. The boys had started on a Teague, Will Denton and Martin McAlister. The boys had started on a hobo trip and needed money and had robbed a freight car and sold their plunder. The McAlister boy was not arrested, though, by his own statement, he was the ringleader. He had turned state's evidence and had enlisted in the navy.

Squire Parks, after hearing the evi-dence, said that he would hold up his decision pending the boys' joining the navy, if such an arrangement could be made. "I will just bind them over to the navy," said the genial justice. The arrests were made by Walter and Joe Clark, and the case was prosecuted by Will Crabtree, special agent for the Southern railroad.

English Women Perfect Novel War Service.
The following excerpt from an arti-cle by Henry Rood in Everybody's Magazine, presents a new phase of the many-sided war work that English women have been called upon to perform:

"In London, at midnight, scores of well-known women start away from their homes, each driving her own motor car, and from that hour until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning they cruise about the streets of the great city, certain cars allotted to certain districts, looking for soldiers or sailers on leave staggers helpless from drink, or suf-fering from whatsoever cause. To Darken Hair Apply Sage Tea

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampon a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared.
